of care."
There follows deep as how their loss
This is a woman's grief, a woman's tear,
Touch with soul
And hand grasps hand and soul finds Attention,
Where wealth of brain for poverty
Hearts are fed;
And kinder deeds are done; where are sold,
A place where kindly, helpful words
Jones,
Reason
To save the patient, listening world over long Where aim is toward the stars; who broad and strong,
For these of purpose, great and ground
"What is a woman's grief? a weeping

"What is a Woman's Club? A meeting ground

For those of purpose, great and
broad and strong,

Whose aim is toward the stars; who ever long

To make the patient, listening world resound

With sweeter music; purer, nobler tones.

A place where kindly, helpful words
are said,

And kindlier deeds are done; where
hearts are fed;

Where wealth of brain for poverty
atones.

And hand grasps hand and soul finds
touch with soul

This is a Woman's Club, a haven fair, Where toilers drop an hour their load
of care."

COLLECT

Keep us, O God, from pettiness, let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault finding, and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Let us take time for all things; make us grow calm, serene and gentle.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are as one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great common woman's heart of us all; and O Lord God, let us not forget to be kind.

Mary Stuart.
